

WSTĘP

Od 2015 roku uczniowie, którzy uczą się w szkole ponadgimnazjalnej według nowej podstawowy programowej, podchodzą do matury w nowym formacie. Na poziomie rozszerzonym oznacza to m.in. zwiększenie wartości punktowej zadań bezpośrednio sprawdzających znajomość środków językowych. Z raportów Centralnej Komisji Egzaminacyjnej wynika, że na poziomie rozszerzonym egzaminu maturalnego to właśnie te zadania sprawiają uczniom największą trudność.

Jest niezwykle ważne, aby uczeń jak najwcześniej, jak najczęściej i w jak najszerszym zakresie stykał się z zadaniami, które na egzaminie końcowym mogą sprawić mu największą trudność. Dlatego oddajemy w Państwa ręce zestaw ponad 100 zadań egzaminacyjnych, wierząc, że będzie istotnym uzupełnieniem podręczników i innych materiałów, z których Państwo korzystają.

Życzymy powodzenia!

ZADANIE 1

THE WRONG CLOTHES

My friend's wedding reception was definitely a memorable event for me. Expecting a lavish party, I bought a fabulous evening dress with a pair of shoes to 1_____. I was terribly determined to make a good impression and I felt it was important to be dressed properly for such an occasion.

On the big day, I turned up at the hotel where the reception was 2_____ held. I knew I looked gorgeous. However, the moment I stepped into the reception room, I couldn't believe my eyes. 3_____ was wearing any formal clothes. The guests were dressed in Hawaiian shirts and skirts or shorts with garlands of flowers around their necks. I looked at the invitation again and realised that I hadn't read it properly. 4_____ the bottom of the invitation, in small print, the hosts clearly stated what type of clothes we were expected to be wearing on that occasion.

COLOUR YOUR HOME

When we think about doing 1_____ our home, we usually concentrate on the furniture, carpets and curtains, but we tend to ignore the need to choose suitable colours for the walls in 2_____ of the rooms of the house.

Most interior designers agree that the choice of colours should always be the starting point when it comes to decorating. But they also say that since the days of having so 3_____ choice are gone, making the right decision which colour to choose for which space seems an incredibly difficult thing to do. That's why, before you attempt to decorate any of the walls, you 4_____ better learn some basic rules. For example, red is good for a dining-room; but if you use it in the bedroom, it may actually stop you from sleeping. Another example might be to apply yellow to cheer a place up, especially one that doesn't get much sunlight.

A CHOCOLATE TASTER

Being a chocolate taster sounds like a dream job, especially for a chocoholic like me. I 1_____ probably enjoy staying at work all day long if my job just consisted of tasting chocolate every single day. So what do you need to become a taster? The job hardly requires any formal qualifications but many tasters usually obtain a university 2_____ such as a BSc or MSc in food technology. They attend many workshops to develop their skills. However, you can't do the job effectively 3_____ you have an acute sense of taste and smell, as they are crucial in assessing the product. Large companies have several tasters whose job is to taste the chocolate in 4_____ to determine whether it's too bitter or too sweet and also to comment on texture and the visual impression. So, if you think you're good at tasting different flavours, you might be wise to consider it as a career.

TWINS

It was great fun having an identical twin sister at school. We used to dress in the same way, which 1_____ our teachers feel cross because they would mix us up and we rarely bothered to correct them. On the other 2_____, we were never that harmonious at home. As very independent girls, we used to argue at least once a day and we even had fights with 3_____ other.

We exhibited the worst behaviour on our birthday and at Christmas. Most people either bought us identical presents or one to share between us and it used to infuriate us. Once we even told our aunt that we would 4_____ have received no present than the same one. It took us a long time to understand that we shouldn't have behaved like that. We all laugh at it now but then we were dead serious about that problem.

HITTING THE JACKPOT

A couple of years ago a dear friend of 1_____ won the lottery. As it happened, we had bought our lottery tickets together but I wasn't as lucky as Kate. As soon as I found out that she had hit the jackpot, I rang Kate to congratulate her 2_____ winning quite a large amount of money.

At first, she didn't want anybody to know about it and she insisted on me accompanying her to pick up the cheque. When we arrived, there were loads of reporters and she agreed to 3_____ her photo taken, which later appeared in all the tabloids. Since then, she has received hundreds of begging letters which really get her down. Her life is a bit easier now but I know she still 4_____ she had kept her privacy.

A PERFECT CAMPSITE

I can't imagine a summer holiday without spending at least a couple of weeks camping in North Wales. Every single year I look 1_____ to escaping problems at work and other everyday preoccupations.

I always stay on a small campsite 2_____ is run by a family of farmers. The charm of this place is not that it provides all kinds of tourist attractions. It doesn't. On the contrary, the local way of life is authentically simple and relaxing. As soon as you arrive, you feel as 3_____ you're far away from the madding crowd and you know you would like to stay there forever.

The campsite is set in a beautiful rural setting. It has its 4_____ fishing lake and easy access to the woods. The owners are extremely friendly and they always give newcomers a very warm welcome.

KARAOKE

For people 1 _____ me, who definitely can't sing but really love trying, there is one answer – karaoke. This form of entertainment originated in Japan, where people generally enjoy picking 2 _____ a microphone and singing after work or at parties. However, in recent years, it has gained in popularity around the world.

So, why did karaoke become so popular in the first place? Because it gives people 3 _____ unique chance to sing well-known songs without the lead vocal, but with the lyrics displayed on a screen. The changing colours indicate which words you should be singing at any particular time.

Whenever I am invited to a party, I always ask the host 4 _____ they're planning entertainment known as a "karaoke session". Whenever the answer is "yes", I make sure to be there. I know I can't sing, but I can't resist the temptation to do it!

HOW FAR CAN YOU THROW YOUR MOBILE?

If you have ever felt a desire to dispose of your mobile phone, you should try it 1 _____ the Mobile Phone Throwing World Championships, held annually in Finland. You can present yourself individually or try your luck with two other people.

Depending on the category you're in, there are different rules and you are judged 2 _____ on distance or general performance. One of the most important things to remember is that you must 3 _____ step over the throwing area and the phone must land within the throwing area. Otherwise, the jury may disqualify the throw or the contestant.

The competition is described as a modern Finnish sport 4 _____ philosophy, according to the organisers, is spiritual freedom from being available all the time. I guess that with our constant need to use a mobile phone, it's a good idea to "throw it away" from time to time.

SCIENCE MUSEUM

I've always been 1 _____ science, especially space exploration. So when I heard that a new science museum had been opened by a group of astronauts, I didn't hesitate and I visited its webpage to check what kind of exhibitions had been put together. Their description sounded 2 _____ fantastic that I booked a ticket straightaway to make sure I would not spend any precious time queuing at the ticket office.

Having got to the museum, I rushed to the department of space exploration. To my mind, it was the best place to be and I could finally experience what the job of a real astronaut is 3 _____. Then, in the section about the Earth, I saw a film about Iceland and even I watched an indoor geyser erupt.

I 4 _____ no doubt that such exhibitions make people realise how powerful our planet is and in effect it helps them respect our globe. I'm sure I'll be back there soon.

CANINE INTELLIGENCE

Research on canine intelligence has proved that dogs are brighter than was previously thought. Not 1 _____ are they brilliant at reading human expressions and body language, but also at interpreting them. Apparently, they are much better at it even than chimpanzees, which are 2 _____ closest relatives. In fact, some dogs are able to understand up to 250 words, signs or signals.

Scientists believe that 3 _____ was taming and domesticating dogs that have helped these special abilities to evolve. For example, it has been proved that dogs can be trained to perform complex tasks. Tests have shown that they can also count up to five. The most intelligent breeds 4 _____ said to be Border Collies and retrievers, whereas hounds and terriers – the least. They just bark at everything.

IDENTITY THEFT

If somebody asked you to name the most valuable treasure you possess, 1 _____ would you say it was? Most would probably mention some personal belongings, but it's our personal information which should be most treasured and, therefore, securely protected.

The problem of identity theft is not a completely new phenomenon but 2 _____ now it hasn't been widely discussed or even fully explained. Indeed, people have pretended to be other people throughout the centuries but now it is possible to collect our data in a much 3 _____ efficient way. One reason why criminals can get hold of our personal information is the fact that people tend to be quite careless about their personal data. Some throw out bank statements and official letters with their normal rubbish. To make 4 _____ worse, some use websites which are not protected properly or share information about themselves online.

A CLOSE CALL

The night before the worst day of my life 1 _____ had been terrible wind and heavy rain so I knew we would be busy removing debris and fallen branches or the need to pump the water out of people's basements. 2 _____ I didn't expect though was that it would be me who would have to be rescued on that shift.

Early in the morning, my team was called to check a building that seemed to have moved because of the rain. The building looked quite safe from the outside and we went inside to 3 _____ a better look. And then the building started collapsing around me. I remember falling and when I woke up I realised that I was trapped. Waiting for help seemed an eternity, but when I heard familiar voices and saw dim lights, my face lit up with happiness 4 _____ my body was aching all over.

A GOOD BOSS

Since leaving school, I 1 _____ on a number of short-term jobs, and I know how important it is to have the right sort of person directing your work. What I learnt is that a good boss must definitely be knowledgeable and bring energy to the job. At the same time the person in charge must be able to decide on important issues without 2 _____ by other things. What's more, a responsible leader must be good at creating an environment in which others can shine. Employees need to be provided with feedback about their 3 _____ and weaknesses are and how to work on them so that they develop their full potential. I also think that what really matters is the 4 _____ to bring people together and focus them on a common goal. It's definitely a real challenge to lead well but when it's done properly it can be very rewarding for both employees and employers.

FAMILY HISTORY

Tracing your ancestors can be a very interesting hobby. But if you don't go about it in a methodical way, it can also become a very frustrating one because people get events mixed up or lose important documents. To begin with, write down all the names, dates of births and 1 _____ of all the family members you or your relatives can remember. After you have collected all the data, it might be worth 2 _____ inquiries in the parishes where your ancestors lived. The documents kept there might give you a 3 _____ picture of your family. And you may find something surprising. When I began exploring my family's past, I found out that one of my relatives was a notorious pirate. I still remember feeling as if I 4 _____ when I read about it because, as far as I knew, everybody in my family had worked in the police forces or in court for generations. Obviously, not everybody!

THE COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS

The Commonwealth of Nations is an organisation which consists 1 _____ 53 member states. All of them used to be British colonies and, in fact, the organisation was created in 1949, when the colonies started gaining independence from Britain. The member states don't have any legal obligation to each other. They are, though, united by culture, history and, of course, language as 2 _____ as by basic principles and values: democracy, human rights and the rule of law. The head of the Commonwealth is the Queen but her position is rather symbolic so, after her death, her successor 3 _____ be chosen by the Commonwealth leaders.

Apart from political involvement in the affairs of the member states, the organisation is also well-known for the Commonwealth Games, a sporting event held 4 _____ four years. What's interesting about the Games is some of the sports played there. They include Lawn Bowls and Rugby Sevens.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

It seems that vocational schools are gaining in popularity again. Many young people don't know what their 1 _____ (PERSON) talents are and, as a result, they choose this type of a school to give themselves time to make decisions about their future. At the same time, they gain the 2 _____ (QUALIFY) necessary to do a particular job.

One advantage of vocational schools is that you can get extra certificates and diplomas that will show an employer what kind of skills you have acquired. Another benefit of attending such a school is that they usually have 3 _____ (EXCEL) connections with local businesses and industries. These businesses would often prefer to employ a 4 _____ (TRAIN) who they have got to know rather than somebody who hasn't done an apprenticeship with them. In this way both parties know what they are getting and a young employee is likely to be encouraged to train further.

HOW TO PREVENT FOOD POISONING

Are you sure you know how to treat food to 1 _____ the risk of food poisoning? There are quite a few things you can do but let's look at the most important ones.

Firstly, you should keep dishes, worktops and utensils clean, cool and dry. The reason for this is that mould and bacteria need 2 _____, moisture and time to grow on food. You can also help food to stay fresh by keeping it cold. Storing food in the fridge will definitely slow the growth of bacteria and therefore the food can stay fresh 3 _____.

Another way to prolong the life of food is by freezing it. However, you must remember that it doesn't kill bacteria—it only makes them 4 _____. That's why it's vital to heat frozen food to a high enough temperature to destroy the bacteria. In this way you can be sure to avoid being poisoned.
