Sarah: So, tell me Paul. What ⁰ did you think / had you thought about the exhibition?

Paul: Well, you might be surprised to hear that I ¹ enjoyed / had enjoyed it. I ² was / had been amazed by the quality of the show overall.

So many original pieces of famous art works, you know, pieces that even I ³ heard / had heard of.

Sarah: Yes. It's the first time they have shown so many famous works in the same place. There wasn't a gallery in the whole of Europe that ⁴ had shown / had been showing those paintings by Dali together before.

Paul: Well, it ⁵ was / had been well worth the entrance fee even though waiting to get in was a nightmare. We ⁶ had been queueing / have queued for nearly an hour before we finally got in, right? Anyway, I'd definitely recommend it and I ⁷ was wondering / had wondered whether Janet would like to see it. She's into art, isn't she? What was your favourite part of the exhibition?

Sarah: For me, it was the expressionist stuff. I really ⁸ had never thought / had never been thinking that I'd see Munch's 'Scream' in the flesh so to speak. A real shame about the Dali, though. I wasn't impressed at all and I ⁹ had always liked / used to like his work. But I'm glad we ¹⁰ went / had gone.
